

Open Day

Saturday 9 August 2014

Supreme Court

9.00 am to 2.00 pm

The Honourable Chief Justice Trevor Riley and Judges invite you to discover the Supreme Court and learn more about law and justice.

- Join Chief Justice Trevor Riley in a Sentencing Forum
- Participate in a Mock Trial presented by NT Barristers
- Tour the remarkable art collection with Tom Pauling AO QC
- Tour the cells, courtrooms and jury deliberation rooms
- Read Judges' Sentencing Remarks and Judgments
- A talk on 'how the Supreme Court was built'
- Informative displays by Police Forensics, various Legal Services, Corrections, Consumer Affairs and more
- Balloons and free gift bags for children
- Refreshments provided by Rotary Club Darwin Sunrise

Telephone: 8999 5295

Website: www.supremecourt.nt.gov.au

Government House

1.00 pm to 6.00 pm

Her Honour the Honourable Sally Thomas AC, Administrator of the Northern Territory, and Mr Duncan McNeill, in conjunction with National Trust, invite you to visit Government House and gardens.

- Explore the Northern Territory's oldest European-style house
- Learn about the role of the Administrator of the Northern Territory
- Talks on the history of Government House
- Informative displays and historical photographs
- Stroll through the beautiful gardens
- Horticulturalists available to answer your questions
- Listen to live music on the lawn
- Devonshire teas and sausage sizzle
- Limited wheelchair access to the gardens

Telephone: 8999 7103

Website: www.govhouse.nt.gov.au

Free Admission

Free parking in Supreme Court jury car park (enter via Smith Street)