

ESTABLISHING EXPERIENCE OF DOMESTIC OR FAMILY VIOLENCE

Under the Residential Tenancies Act 1999

Occupation prescribed by regulation:

- a health practitioner who practices in the medical or psychology professions under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law;
- a social worker with a qualification endorsed or accredited by the Australian Association of Social Workers;
- a police officer;
- an Australian legal practitioner;
- a person in charge of a domestic violence support service.

Certificates in the approved form will include:

- the name and occupation of the person completing the form;
- the name of the person who experienced the DFV; and
- a statement that the person completing the form is, based on the information they have before them, satisfied that the person they are completing the form for experienced DFV.